Dear Michael:

Included with this letter are some remaining materials from my files. I have attached a list of the advertisers and the date of their last issue. Someone should probably contact several of them to renew their contract since most expired after the last issue of volume 13.

By separate mailing I have sent the back issues of the Southeastern Law Librarian. Many libraries and individuals will contact you about back issues. As far as I can tell the collection I am mailing to you is all the available newsletters. I do not think that any former editors maintain a file.

Good luck and let me know if I can help you.

Sincerely,
